WOMEN IN FOSS

Sewvandi Wickramasinghe

Sri Lanka Institute of Information Technology(SLIIT)

Cursory of October

- Elected for Women In Free Open Source Software Community of Sri Lanka on 18th of October 2020.

- Gathered female students and formed a temporary group for potential exceptions of Women In FOSS campus club.

- For the first time SLIIT FOSS Community and Women In FOSS collaborating with Computer Science Club of Sabragamuwa University of Sri Lanka hosted the Hacktober Sunday '20 virtual event.

- Devising to do a MongoDB quarantine tech talk collaborating with SLIIT FOSS along Mrs. Lieke Boon, program manager at MongoDB, previous manager of Higher Education at GitHub (Netherlands).

- SLIIT FOSS Community collaborating with Women In FOSS are launching the first ever podcast episode speaking with influential FOSS enthusiasts in Tech.

- Devising to do a cyber security related virtual session with Ms. Renu Harshatha, year 3 semester 2, cyber security student of SLIIT.

- Currently constituting a proposal and a logo for Women In FOSS.

- Assigned new female students for Mozilla and FOSS bloggers.